Chintan Shah joins UNMAI Carbon Solutions Singapore as Global Strategic Advisor

Singapore, 19th May 2026 — UNMAI Carbon Solutions Pte. Ltd., a Singapore-headquartered global climate advisory and solutions firm, today announced Chintan Shah as its Global Strategic Advisor to its Global Strategic Advisory Board to enhance the firm’s capabilities in climate finance, investment strategy, structured finance, and carbon market-linked capital mobilization.

Chintan Shah is the Founder of SustCred, a firm focused on sustainable investment in the renewable energy sector where he is overseeing various entities under the SustCred umbrella including SustCred Fund Managers LLP and SustCred Ventures Private Limited. He is a veteran in the renewable energy and climate finance industry. Until recently he served as Group President of Strategic Business Development and Policy Affairs at ReNew, one of India's largest renewable energy companies. Earlier, he served as Director (Technical) at the Indian Renewable Energy Development Agency (IREDA) Ltd., where he was instrumental in project financing and policy planning. He also held leadership roles as President of SBD and Corporate Affairs at Suzlon Energy Limited and worked with The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI).

Chintan Shah brings three decades of extensive experience across strategic business development, policy & regulatory affairs, projects execution, structured lending, corporate finance, and investment advisory, with exposure spanning private credit, financial markets, and institutional financial solutions in clean energy. His professional background provides valuable expertise in structuring scalable financing solutions aligned with energy transition, sustainability, and climate finance.

“We are delighted to welcome Chintan Shah at a time when climate finance and carbon markets are increasingly converging with mainstream capital markets,” said Yuvaraj Dinesh Babu Nithyanandam, Founder & CEO of UNMAI Carbon Solutions. “His expertise in financing structures, institutional banking, investment strategy, and financial ecosystems will significantly strengthen UNMAI Carbon’s ability to support scalable climate finance solutions and high-integrity carbon market development.”

“UNMAI Carbon’s focus on trusted carbon market systems, climate finance innovation, and digital infrastructure presents a strong platform for enabling meaningful impact in the global transition toward net zero,” said Chintan Shah. “I look forward to guiding UNMAI Carbon contributing toward strengthening investment pathways, financing ecosystems, and institutional confidence required for scaling credible climate and carbon market initiatives globally.”

As global carbon markets increasingly evolve toward institutional participation and finance-grade infrastructure, Chintan’s guidance is expected to strengthen investor confidence, enhancing market-oriented financial structuring, and supporting the development of credible, climate and carbon market ecosystem. His strategic guidance is expected to further accelerate UNMAI Carbon’s mission of enabling transparent, trusted, and globally interoperable carbon market ecosystems aligned with long-term net zero and sustainable development objectives.
